Mayor Johnson to-night in a formal statement defends his own action and that of his subordinates in the city adminis-tration in tearing away the tracks. Ho or his subordinates in the city administration in tearing away the tracks. He said in part;

"On June 11th, the City Council, by resolution, ordered the railway company to move its single track on Fultion Street and directed the Board of Public Service to move the tracks unless the company compiled within thirty days. That was six weeks ago, and the order has been utterly ignored by the company. The railway has been violating the law all this time, and has shown no inclination to obey the city's order, which was a perfectly reasonable and usual one."

The hearing to-morrow morning, in which Mayor Johnson is cited before Judge Ford for contempt, will be stubbornly contested on both sides," and promises to be sensational.
